VLADIMIR SOLOVIEV – THE METAPHYSICS OF LOVE

This is the next Krakow conference on Russian philosophy. In 2018 we studied the heritage of Eugene Trubetskoy, in 2017 – Alexei Khomiakov, in 2016 we investigated the significance of Peter Chaadaev’s works. In previous editions we dealt with the links between Post-Secularism and Russian religious philosophy, the relation of Christianity and culture, the reception of Russian thought in Europe, Russian symbolism and other topics. Each year our conference brings together many scholars from Belarus, France, Japan, Poland, Russia, Spain, Ukraine, USA and many other countries. Selected papers presented at the conference will be published in a volume of our series “Ex Oriente Lux” published in USA by Wipf and Stock.
